

THE ST JAMES' SINGERS

The St James' Singers are a voluntary choir that lead the singing at the 9:00am Sung Eucharist on a fortnightly basis, singing the psalm and communion motet. The St James' Singers are the second choir of the parish, formed in 2010 to offer parishioners and others with an interest in choral singing an opportunity to learn liturgical repertoire and gain experience in leading services. The Singers lead the 9:00am service on alternate Sundays.

The Singers are looking for new choristers to supplement their ranks. Tenors and basses are particularly welcome! If you miss singing in a choir, used to sing in a choir, have past experiences in choral singing or are new to choral music and want to learn about choral singing within a liturgical context, this is the perfect opportunity for you!

Joining the Singers involves a simple audition: please send your expression of interest to Alistair Nelson at organist@sjks.org.au or phone him on 8227 1308.
