

FUNERALS: FURTHER INFORMATION

Although the time immediately after a death is distressing, we are comforted by hearing anew the promises that our Lord has made concerning after death: uniting with Him and our loved ones in heaven. A Christian funeral therefore combines both a lament for the loss of the life of the one now gone, and a celebration before God of that person's life with the support of a strong community.

The Clergy at St James' are available to guide relatives through this time, both for counselling as well as with funeral preparations.

MUSIC

The music used at these services must be agreed upon with the officiating Clergy and the St James' Music Department.
