EMPOWERING YOUTH TO CREATE A BETTER FUTURE

We invite you to attend a Conversation: Guest Speakers

Lila Mularczyk OAM, JP - awarded the Inaugural Outstanding Advocate for Public Education Award 2024, jointly with Michael Kirby

Paul Nicolaou - Executive Director at Business Sydney, Adjunct Professor at UBSS Australia, Advocate for curbing homelessness in Sydney

Moderated by Richard Cogswell SC, prior president NSW Mental Health Tribunal

In 2015, St Laurence House hosted an event that questioned society's ability to empower young people to meet future challenges. Our guest speakers were Hon Michael Kirby and Simon Longstaff.

Now, ten years later, further challenges have emerged – uncertainty abounds, the world order is under threat, social media dominates and the housing crisis has worsened. So where do we go from here?

Our young people face many challenges such as bullying, addiction to gaming, substance abuse, mental health issues such as depression and homelessness. How did this happen in one of the wealthiest countries of the world?

- Is education meeting our needs?
- What are we educating our young people for - careers or fulfilment?
- What is the impact of social media?
- How well are we teaching ethics, principles and values?
- How do we look after those from disadvantaged backgrounds?

Tickets $50

Drinks and light refreshments included, to be served in the covered courtyard

St Laurence House is fund raising to launch Leap House, a new housing initiative to support homeless children and young people

Build for the Future

Donate to the St James' Foundation

St James' Church has a vital ministry in Sydney. The parish is held in high regard in the community. Its fine musical tradition is widely enjoyed and appreciated.

The cost of this ministry is rising each year. If you want St James' to continue to grow, consider donating or making a bequest to The St James' Foundation.

The Foundation's primary purpose is to build a strong ethically invested capital base so that investment income can be distributed to fund parish activities.

The St James' Church Building and Property Foundation provides financial assistance to assist in the maintenance and upkeep of the historic church building, one of the gems of Sydney's iconic Macquarie Street precinct. Donations to this Foundation are not tax deductible.

The St James' Music Foundation provides financial assistance primarily for the production and performance of sacred and secular music, with a focus on choral and pipe organ music. Donations to this Foundation are tax deductible. Two types of donations are accepted:

- general donations for the Foundation's capital fund which are invested to provide annual distributions to fund the ongoing music programme;
- donations for specific projects such as organ and choral scholarships, commissions for new works, final payments for The Bicentennial Pipe Organ or the production of CDs, Orchestral Masses, Bach Cantatas and other activities.

The Foundation has a strong track record. Since its establishment in 1999, and through the generosity of donors and investment income, it has earned over $11 million and distributed over $6.63 million into parish projects.

Donate now! Help keep St James' a vibrant presence in Sydney.
